FLOOR DEBATE

January 16, 2004

I don't think we ought to be having our voices from here compete with the ceremonies that are scheduled to begin there at noon. So if the Speaker, I see him up at the front desk, would make himself available, I'd like to ask him a question.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm.

SPEAKER BROMM: Yes, Mr. President.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Senator Bromm.

SPEAKER BROMM: Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Bromm, is some kind of motion appropriate? Senator Cunningham pointed out to me that they've already started out there, and I believe our voices do carry out there, don't they?

SPEAKER BROMM: Yes, Senator Chambers. And could I comment a little further on that?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: That's why I wanted to give you the opportunity.

SPEAKER BROMM: There is quite an event starting in the Rotunda in commemoration of Martin Luther King Day. And I guess that kind of came upon me. With Monday being the holiday, I didn't zero in on the fact that there was going to be that in the Rotunda. The Governor is speaking and things like that, and some senators I know would like to be there, and certainly want to provide that opportunity. There are also a number of senators who are excused already and it always concerns us, I think, when we get down to the point of where we're marginal in terms of people being able to participate in the debate. So considering the gigantic amount of work that you've accomplished already this week, of which there has been more than you would probably realize, I think perhaps the motion that I put up to adjourn until Tuesday at 9:00 a.m. should be taken up pretty soon, unless there are strenuous objections to that. And there is a great bill coming up that we won't get to and that's introduced by, oh, it's Senator Bromm, but we just won't get to
